

Lackawanna College

ADDICTIONS CONCENTRATION

ACADEMIC YEAR 2019-2020

NAME _____

The Addictions Concentration is designed to prepare students to work with individuals and families addressing problems associated with addictions. This concentration provides students with a theoretical understanding of substance use disorders and related addictive disorders. It also offers an introduction to counseling, treatment, or prevention. The curriculum emphasizes research, theory, and practice regarding the spectrum of care in addictions.

This 18 credit concentration includes the following coursework:

Required 12 credits:

Semester Taken	Grade Earned
---------------------------	-------------------------

_____	_____	PSY 245 Drugs and Behavior
_____	_____	HSV 410 Substance Abuse+
_____	_____	PHL 305 Human Services Ethics OR
_____	_____	PHL 310 Morality in Criminal Justice
_____	_____	HSV 345 Behavioral/Process Addictions+

Required 6 credits (choose two courses):

_____	_____	CJS 410 Drug Abuse & Crime Control+
_____	_____	CJS 300* Criminal Justice Internship I
_____	_____	CJS 400* Criminal Justice Internship II
_____	_____	HSV 300* Human Services Internship I
_____	_____	HSV 400* Human Services Internship II
_____	_____	HSV 355 Addictions/Special Populations+

*Either inpatient or outpatient facility as well as county drug court. The internship must be approved by Social Science Division Chair prior to registration.

+PSY 245 is a prerequisite for this course